

IDA JANE CRANFORD, one of the Complainants, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. McSherry:

Q Your name, ma'am, please? A. Ida Jane Cranford.

Q You are a sister of Everett Moxley? A. Yes.

Q Mrs. Cranford, you have heard the testimony of your brother, Mr. Will Moxley, and your sister, Mrs. Compher, as to the brothers and sisters and other heirs of Everett?

A Yes.

Q Was that accurate? A. Yes.

Q Are there any other heirs? A. No.

(Mr. Clapp) Mr. DeLauter states that the parties named in the bill of complaint are the heirs of Everett Moxley, so we won't have to go into that further.

Q Do you recall when Everett went in possession of this property?

A I don't know. I was living at Washington at that time, I couldn't really tell you. My sister there knew more than I did about it.

Q Do you recall when Mr. Moxley died?

A Yes, he died at my house February 4, 1952.

Q Did you visit him at all?

A Yes, when I lived in Washington I used to come up and do his work for him and look after him.

Q About how long a period of time?

A The last 12 or 15 years.

Q During that time was he living on this tract?

A Yes.

Q Was there anybody else living there with him?

A No, sir, not to my knowledge.

Q After he purchased the premises from Jim Moxley did Jim live there?

A Now I couldn't tell you. I was in town and I don't re-
